

Asia Conference on Kinesiology 2023 (ACK2023)

The 13th Asia Conference on Kinesiology (ACK2023) and 7th Annual Meeting of the Asian Society of Kinesiology (ASK) was successfully held virtually at University of Tsukuba, Ibaraki, Japan on August 24-25, 2023. The theme of the conference was Medical Check-up and Conditioning for Motor Function.

ACK2023 was attended by 109 participants from 12 countries. We would like to thank the local organizing committee from Japan and the ASK for their contributions to make ACK2023 a success.

Summary of the 13th Asia Conference on Kinesiology and 7th Annual Meeting of the ASK are as follows:

Total Participants	109
Participating countries	12
Abstracts submitted	72
Keynote Presentations	4
Highlighted Symposium Presentations	19
Oral Presentations	19
Poster Presentations	13
Native Language Presentations	1

ACK2023 Young Investigator Awards (YIA)

- Total number of YIA applicants: 16
- YIA Oral Presentations: 16

The winners of the YIA Oral Presentation Awards:

First place: Kyoya Ono, University of Tsukuba, Japan

Presented on does the side hop test reflect the normal and safe movement of individuals with chronic ankle instability?

Second place: Rami Mizuta, Hiroshima University, Japan

Presented on The width of the tibiofibular syndesmosis and dynamic balance during forward jump landing for each menstrual cycle: An observational study

Third place: Satoshi Arima, Hiroshima University, Japan

Presented on Differences in muscle morphology and strength over time and detraining effects after 8 weeks of selective training on the peroneus longus and brevis

Follow up

We would like to encourage all conference speakers and presenters to submit their findings to the Asian Journal of Kinesiology (AJK). For manuscript formats and other information, please visit the AJK Manuscript Submission website.